KEVIN LAFFERTY HURDLE and THACKERAY STEEPLECHASE

Mark McNamara

7 JULY - WARRNAMBOOL

KEVIN LAFFERTY HURDLE - 3200M • THACKERAY STEEPLE - 3450M

The cold and wet conditions that Warrnambool so often experiences in the depths of winter is real 'steeplechasing weather' and is redolent of conditions in Ireland, the birthplace of jumps racing. The cessation of jumps races by the VRC (after it held its 2009 Grand the name of the legendary local trainer Kevin Lafferty, who had enormous success on the flat and with jumpers. Thackeray is a dual Grand Annual Steeplechase winner, which in 1981 failed narrowly in his bid to become the first three-time winner of that iconic race.

Nationals at Sandown) and at Moonee Valley necessitated several programming changes for the 2010 jumps season. July 2010 saw the introduction of two new feature races at Warrnambool, the Tom Corrigan Hurdle and the Thackeray Steeplechase, both of which carried a stake of $100,000. Since 2011 the hurdle race has carried

The honour roll of winners of the Lafferty and the Thackeray (see following) already includes several champion jumpers, most notably Wells and Bashboy – the only horses to have won three Grand National Steeplechases. That honour roll also includes the last two winners of the Grand Annual, Gold Medals and Zed Em.

In winning the Lafferty Hurdle on Killarney Kid, Steven Pateman cemented his position as the leading rider in the two races. It was Pateman's fourth win in the ten runnings of the hurdle race. The champion rider also has a quartet of Thackeray Steeplechases to his credit. After his win on Killarney Kid, Pateman again sang the praises of trainer Patrick Payne, saying, "I'm very fortunate to be able to ride a lot of Patrick's jumpers. His record as a jumps trainer is incredible." The admiration is mutual, with Payne very happy to have Pateman on his jumpers.

and Kate McLaren-Ryan, who was elected to the WRC committee last year and is married to trainer Simon Ryan. Police Camp gave Simon, a former jumps jockey, his biggest win as a trainer. Ryan is impeccably bred to be a good horseman. His late mother Colleen is a sister of Pat Hyland, one of the greatest racing exports from the Warrnambool area. Simon's father Pat Ryan was apprenticed to Kevin Lafferty in the early 1960s. He won three successive SWDRA jockey's premierships and rode over 200 winners, including about 60 over jumps.

In winning the hurdle Payne joined Ciaran Maher on four wins as the leading trainer in these races. This year Maher had to settle for second place in the both the Lafferty (Euroman) and the Thackeray (Bit of a Lad).

The very promising local steeplechaser Police Camp revelled in the heavy conditions and aided by a great ride from Will Gordon scored an impressive win in the Thackeray Steeplechase. A highlight of that race was Shane Jackson's outstanding horsemanship in staying on Dormello Mo when the gelding hit the third last fence as he took it while leading with his stablemate, Police Camp, and went down on his nose. Police Camp has several local owners, including WRC chairman Nick Rule

Pat's best performance was, as an apprentice, riding all five flat winners at Koroit in January 1963. He holds the distinction of riding Lafferty's last steeplechase winner at Warrnambool, Duke Pierre, in the Dundonald Steeple at the Woodford races in January 1970. The following month, at his last ride over jumps, Pat was beaten by a head on Duke Pierre in the Beach Steeplechase at Warrnambool. With a young and expanding family - although Simon was still only a twinkle in his father's eye - Pat Ryan then concentrated on riding on the flat and also worked as stable foreman for Lafferty. It's a small world - Duke Pierre was part owned by John Rule, father of Nick Rule and also a chairman of the WRC.

25 August • Ballarat

Located on historic Lydiard Street in the heart of Ballarat, Craig's Royal Hotel is the legendary Australian goldrush era grand hotel. Built in 1862 on the site of Bath's Hotel, Ballarat's first officially licensed pub, Craig's has been a goldfield icon since Prince Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh, slept in its ornately decorated rooms in 1867 and Dame Nellie Melba famously sang from its balcony in 1908. Host to poets, Princes and Prime Ministers over its 160 year history, the hotel is a true icon of the Victorian period.

In 1870, owner Walter Craig dreamed of his horse, Nimblefoot, winning the Melbourne Cup and of his own death. Both eventuated that year. Five years later, the Melbourne Racing Club was formed by a group of prominent local squatters at a meeting convened at Craig's
